TOWNSEND SAYS WILSON LOBBIES

Michigan Senator Directly Accuses Chief Executive.

CHARGE CREATES SURPRISE

Witness Before Committee Defines a Lobbyist as One Who Tries to Influence Legislation by Offering Money, Entertaining Lawmakers, Making Threats of Political Opposition or by Withholding Patronage.

Washington, June 7.—Senator Townsend of Michigan exploded a real bomb in the senate tariff lobby investigation when he made the specific charge that President Wilson's use of patronage as a club to force Democratic senators to accept without question the Underwood bill just as it passed the house is itself lobbying of an insidious character.

Senator Townsend's charge came as a surprise to the committee.
The investigation had proceeded in a humdrum manner until he came to define a "lobby."

"I understand by the word lobby, or rather lobbyist—because the lobby is composed of lobbyists—that the lobbyist is a person whose business is to promote or prevent legislation upon some particular subject. That influence may be proper or improper, according to the methods he employs."

Senator Walsh interrupted to seek an explanation of just what Senator Townsend was driving at.

"I repeat," said Senator Townsend,
"a lobbyist is a person whose business it is to secure or prevent some particular legislation, such as the offer or payment of money or other thing of value, extending favor or entertainment to legislators who are about to act upon legislation; by insidious threats of political opposition, by holding out prospect of political reward or by withholding patronage."

Never Saw Improper Methods.

"I have known many lobbyists who have been interested in legislation by proper means. I have not known of anybody who, by the use of money or the proposed use of money, by the offer of reward or by entertainments, has sought to secure some particular legislation."

"The nearest approach to undue influence which would come within my definition, in my judgment, has been the influence exerted by the president and by the use and power of the party secret caucus."

"I am convinced that some senators will vote in favor of the tariff bill and against proposed amendments because of the fear of antagonizing what is known as the power of the administration."

"You believe coercion, or a species of lobby, can come from the executive department as well as from outside it?" asked Senator Nelson.

"I do, yes sir," said the Michigan senator. "I have no doubt about that in my mind and I have not so much fear from the corruption of senators as I have from the encroachment on the legislative by the executive branch; and I am not blaming this executive any more than I would anybody else.
It seems to be rather popular nowadays."

The senate agreed to extend the time limit for the lobby investigation

ATTACK ON LA FOLLETTE

Medill McCormick Assails the Wisconsin Senator.

Milwaukee, June 7.—A savage attack on Senator La Follette by Medill McCormick of Chicago was by far the chief sensation of the banquet of the Wisconsin Progressive party.

That La Follette wanted Roosevelt's support, but would not give the oldest his own assistance, when he himself was hopelessly out of the race, was one of the features of the McCormick charges.

The banquet was recognized as the first move in the campaign of 1916, on the part of the Progressives to eliminate the man who is feared as the Republican candidate for president that year, Senator La Follette.
To defeat La Follette in his own state, the Progressives declared, would be to deliver the most effective blow possible in behalf of the Progressive cause.

LABEL SUIT IS DISMISSED

E. G. Patterson Drops $50,000 Action Against Bismarck Paper.

Bismarck, June 7.—Judge Nussle, on motion of counsel for E. G. Patterson, dismissed the $50,000 damage suit against the Bismarck Times. This is the end of litigation commenced on
Bismarck Times and F. E. Packard and E. E. Odyke for alleged libel.
The defendants were in court ready to stand trial.

Would Extend Commerce Court.

Washington, June 7.—The fight for a continuance of the commerce court, threatened with extinction July 1, was renewed by Representative Broussard of Louisiana, who introduced a bill not only to continue the court but to extend its powers.

SENATORS BALK AT ARBITRATION

Friends of Principle Begin to Show Alarm.

TREATIES IN GRAVE DANGER

Unless There Is Decided Change in
Sentiment Twenty-three of the Twenty-four Agreements With Other Nations During the Past Five Years Will Fail to Secure Ratification.

Washington, June 7.—The principle of compulsory arbitration written into the code which has bound the United States with twenty-four greater and lesser nations of the world for five years is in serious danger and unless there is a decided change in sentiment in the senate the renewal of twenty-three of the treaties which gave concrete evidence of this nation's belief in such a policy may be impossible.

In executive session the senate again failed to ratify renewals of the arbitration agreements with Great Britain, Italy and Spain, which recently expired. These conventions provide that questions relating to the interpretation of treaties, excepting those that cannot be settled through diplomatic channels or those of vital interest, national honor or independence, shall be submitted to The Hague.

A similar treaty with France already has been renewed.

The main argument arose over the contention that, if the treaty with Great Britain is ratified, the Panama canal tolls question will have to be submitted to The Hague, but the Japanese question and the general attitude of the nation toward compulsory arbitration was brought up and led to the expression of views utterly at variance with entrance into such binding agreements in the future.

A motion to re-refer the three treaties with instructions that the one with Great Britain be modified to exempt specifically the Panama canal tolls question was abandoned, but prolonged debate was predicted for future sessions and friends of the principle of arbitration were alarmed at the strength displayed by the opposition.
Some senators showed a disposition to criticize the making of compulsory arbitration agreements, even if they found only in cases which do not affect vital interest, national honor or independence.

One senator went so far as to declare: "There are many people in the United States and in the senate who

Minnesota Board of Directors Decides on Date.

St. Paul, June 7.—Minnesota's state fair in 1914 will be held from Sept.
7 to 12, inclusive. This was decided by the board of directors on hearing the report of Secretary Simpson on the results of the date conference held here May 26 and 27.

While these dates will bring the state fair a week later next year than it is to be held in 1913 there is no change in the custom of opening the exposition on the first Monday in September. The proposition suggested at the date conference was to permanently fix the fair dates a week later than has been the custom in the past. To this, however, the nine other fair associations represented could not agree. Resolutions were adopted declaring no change in dates could be made without being detrimental to all the fair associations represented at the conference.

LA FOLLETTE FLAYS VETO

Senator Urges Legislature to Pass Woman Suffrage Bill.

Madison, Wis., June 7.—Senator La Follette urged the Wisconsin legislature to pass the Glenn bill submitting to a referendum vote in 1914 a bill extending the right of suffrage to women over Governor McGovern's veto.
He says that "the reasoning of the governor's veto is trivial."

In a signed editorial the senator criticizes the governor for wanting to wait to see how suffrage works in other states.

GLAD WIFE HAS DIVORCE

Former Minister Will Now Wed Girl He Lives With.

New York, June 7.—"I have been waiting for this for six years," Jere Knobe Cooke, the former Hempstead, N. Y., clergyman, said when informed that a divorce had been granted his wife in Hartford, Conn.

"Now Floretta Whaley and I will not be outcasts in the world, but will be married just as soon as we are officially notified of the divorce."

Cooke is now living in a Washington Heights apartment with Floretta Whaley and their two children. He is

Chairman of Subcommittee

Senate Subcommittee May Favor Retaliatory Duty.

Washington, June 7.—For several hours the senate finance subcommittee, of which Senator Johnson of Maine is chairman, discussed the paper schedule of the Underwood tariff bill and it is reported an amendment to put a retaliatory duty against Canada on print paper valued at not more than 2½ cents a pound is being seriously considered.

Because the majority of the subcommittee was inclined to this view they summoned from New York John Norris, chairman of the paper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, who reiterated opposition to the imposition of any countervailing duty.

No decision was reached, but it was learned from an authoritative source
with the leaning toward putting in the
countervailing duty.

PITTSBURG BOARD DISMISSES HEETER

Declares Educator Guilty of Immoral Conduct.

Pittsburg, June 7.—Superintendent
S. L. Heeter of the Pittsburg public schools was declared by the board of public education guilty of immorality and taking unwarranted liberties with women. By a vote of 12 to 1, two members being absent, Mr. Heeter was dismissed from the service of the board of education.

After consultation with his attorney, Clarence Burleigh, Mr. Heeter declined to issue any statement or to discuss the case.

Recently he declared that if discharged he would sue the board for the collection of the $25,000 of his salary under his contract for a term of

Des Moines, June 7.—C. M. Isham, sixty-five years old, a wealthy real
blowing the top of his head off with a shotgun. His body was found in the basement of an unoccupied house.
A notched yardstick was used to discharge the gun. Ill health and dependency are assigned as the cause.

WILSON IS DOING HIS OWN PUSHING

White House Hostess Also Proving Herself a Hustler.

PLACE HUNTERS TIRED OUT

Fifteen or Twenty Applicants For Every Little Postoffice—Senate and House Maintain Strained Relations
Over Minor Matters—Cleaning Up

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 7.—[Special.]—
President Wilson is not being pushed.
He is doing the pushing. There may be people who think he is being crowded and shoved in the matter of appointments, but the deliberate manner in which he makes selections for offices
time, and not even his cabinet officers hurry him.

As a pusher he is doing a great deal.
For instance, he does not allow that the Republican contention of a long delayed vote on the tariff bill is tenable. He rather intends to have that measure pushed as far as he can bring influence, and a president always has influence. Then he is pushing currency legislation. I doubt whether there ever was any real intention of taking up currency legislation at this session until the president began pushing it. So it seems that all the crowding is coming from the White House end of Pennsylvania avenue.

Cleaning Washington.

Mrs. Wilson is not going to be content with the title of "first lady of the land" and White House hostess.
She is taking an active interest in other matters, particularly in "cleaning up Washington." We have heard that phrase so often that it is now quoted, but as long as the president's wife makes a campaign for cleaning the city, removing the slums and improving conditions for the poor and unfortunate we may expect results. Already it is proposed to condemn and
means congressional action, and it is probable that Mrs. Wilson will obtain favorable legislation.

Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts, next to Jim Mann, knows more about the rules of the house than any member on the Republican side. Fitzgerald of New York is his only equal on the Democratic side. "A knowledge of the rules," remarked Gardner, "enables a very small number of men to
of a man who does not understand the rules, but you have got to have the votes to pass a bill. If we had working with us last congress a man like John W. Dwight to round up the members we would have passed the immigration bill over President Taft's veto.

Dwight's System.

"Dwight had the best system for keeping members on hand that I have ever known," continued Gardner. "He was 'whip' on the Republican side during the days when the fight was made against Speaker Cannon and when there were other stormy times and close votes ahead. He always got out every vote for his side. Dwight had the members' card indexed with cards of different colors. One color showed whether a man was always on hand, another whether he was in the city and another if he was out of the city.
He always knew where to find his men
imminent and watched every man going out and would say, 'Now, you're coming back?' He sometimes on close votes got other men who would have to vote against his side to leave, but

men are still under the heavy burden of correspondence from those who want government jobs. "I never imagined that so many people could want offices," remarked Congressman Bo-her. "There are fifteen or twenty applicants for every little postoffice in my district and all equally insistent

Congressional Bickering.

It is expected that there will be differences between the senate and house over tariff matters, but already in the
over small matters which might indicate future strained relations. The senate has found an opportunity to criticize the house for taking stationery to the amount of $125 for the extra session of congress, and the house has criticized the senate for having too
small things, they point to further differences. Even in passing a few necessary bills during the extra sessions the differences have been such as to

Brother Jonathan," remarked a man who had been working in close touch with former Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon. "He is neither an anachronism nor a crank. On the contrary, he is a mighty level headed citizen, with some very good ideas about the business of government."

"I could hold your hand forever," he exclaimed rapturously.

"you might learn how,"—Life.

EARL ROBERTS.

Presides at Banquet for New American Ambassador.

Pilgrims' Society Honors the American Ambassador.

London, June 7.—Walter Hines
to the court of St. James, received his baptism of fire as an after dinner speaker in London at a welcoming banquet given in his honor by the Pilgrims' society. Field Marshal Earl Roberts presided and had as supporters at the head of the table Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary; the Earl of Halsbury, former lord chancellor; the Earl of Aberdein, lord lieutenant of Ireland, and Augustin Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland.

Three hundred and fifty Pilgrims, among them many prominent British-ers and representative Americans, attended. Mr. Page was welcomed in speeches by Earl Roberts and Sir Edward Grey, the latter receiving a great ovation when he was referred
maker of Europe."

SHARE HONORS AT PITTSBURG DINNER

Viscount Chinda and George W.
Guthrie Guests.

Pittsburg, June 7.—The Japanese ambassador to America, Viscount Chin-da, and the new American ambassador to Japan, George W. Guthrie, of this city, shared the honors of a testimonial dinner to the latter arranged by "friends and neighbors" of the latter. Secretary of State William J.
Bryan, who, it was planned, would formally introduce the ambassadors to each other, was so delayed that he arrived almost as the festivities ended.

Ambassador Guthrie, in expressing his appreciation of the demonstration in his honor, addressing himself to Viscount Chinda, said:

"Your excellency, what you see here will, I have no doubt, convince you that the American people as a whole intend to keep faith and desire to live in peace and friendship with the emperor whom you are justly proud to
with all other nations of the world."

"We are a people who keep faith, and we wish to do justice."

Viscount Chinda apologized for reading his speech, saying he feared the pitfalls of a foreign language.

said, "is liable to give rise to occasional misunderstandings and complications, but I deny the existence or the possible existence of any phase in those difficulties which would not eventually yield to due and timely processes of diplomatic treatment—the treatment of justice and fair play and a sympathetic understanding of the problems of each nation by the other."

Chicagoan Mortally Hurt Trying to Take Gun From Spouse.

Chicago, June 7.—James J. Cross, a merchant, was shot and probably fatally hurt by his wife in their home.
Mrs. Cross declared the shooting
flourished the revolver before a painter, who was decorating their home, in order to prevent his quitting work before the day was up.

Cross interfered to take the weapon from her and in a scuffle was shot.
Mrs. Cross was arrested, her husband taken to a hospital and the painter disappeared.

Views Boys' Games.

New York, June 7.—Theodore Roosevelt, Vincent Astor, and other officials and others were spectators of the games of 10-000 school boys in Central park. Colonel Roosevelt offered the boys congratulations and advice in an address. Colonel Roosevelt watched the boys for half an hour. "Bully!" Simply bully!" he cried. "The finest lot of boys I ever saw!"

AMERICANS ASK WILSON FOR HELP

PROMISES PAY FOR WARSHIPS

Canadian Premier Says Government Majority Will Pass Bill.

Ottawa, Ont., June 7.—Premier Borden announced in the house of commons that the Canadian government would pay for the three battleships which the British admiralty decided to construct after the Canadian senate rejected the Canadian naval aid bill.

This bill sought to appropriate $35-000,000 to meet the cost of three dreadnoughts.

Mr. Borden intimated that by the time the three warships are completed the government will have a majority in the senate and the naval bill would be passed.

Himself in Back Yard.

Minneapolis, June 7.—Overcome with melancholia during a party at his home Harold Johnson, aged sixteen, went out the back door and hanged himself to a tree in the yard.
The body was found by the father, Henry Johnson, when he went out to feed his chickens in the morning.

Young Johnson was seen to leave the house by several guests at the party, but no attention was paid to his absence. Even members of the family did not miss the boy until the

Lindbergh Creates New Issue in Banking Committee.

Washington, June 7.—Representative Lindbergh of Minnesota has stirred up an issue in the banking and currency committee that may provoke trouble before it is settled.

At the initial meeting of the committee Mr. Lindbergh presented a resolution providing that all committee hearings and sessions should be open to the press and the public. Representative Gorbly of Indiana, a Democrat, moved that the resolution be tabled. This motion was defeated.
Thereupon the Lindbergh resolution was referred to a subcommittee of five of which Representative Bulkley of Ohio is chairman. This subcommittee will give Mr. Lindbergh a hearing.
Chairman Glass and other leaders are opposed to making the sessions public.

Reading Men May Strike.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Men employed in the shops of the Philadelphia and Reading company are voting on a strike proposition to cover the whole Reading system. The vote was precipitated by a strike at the Rutherford (Pa.) shops over the dismissal of four men.

Ever Ready.

"There is one vital difference between ball players and politicians," said one.
"Well, one that is more noticeable than any of the others. You never hear of a political holdout."—Chicago

tration.""You believe coercion, or a species
it?" asked Senator Nelson."I do, yes sir," said the Michigan senator. "I have no doubt about that
It seems to be rather popular now-days."The senate agreed to extend the

consin Senator.Milwaukee, June 7.—A savage at-
the Wisconsin Progressive party.That La Follette wanted Roose-
olonel his own assistance, when he
McCormick charges.The banquet was recognized as the
gressive cause.

LIBEL SUIT IS DISMISSED

E. G. Patterson Drops $50,000 Action Against Bismarck Paper.Bismarck, June 7.—Judge Nuessle,
and E. Opdyke for alleged libel.
to stand trial.

threatened with extinction July 1, was renewed by Representative Broussard
extend its powers.SENATORS BALK

Will Fail to Secure Ratification.Washington, June 7.—The principle
sible.In executive session the senate again
tration agreements with Great Britain,
be submitted to The Hague.A similar treaty with France already has been renewed.The main argument arose over the
canal tolls question will have to be
the expression of views utterly at variance with entrance into such binding agreements in the future.A motion to re-refer the three treat-
bound only in cases which do not af-
independence.One senator went so far as to de-

cides on Date.St. Paul, June 7.—Minnesota's state
to 12, inclusive. This was decided
held here May 26 and 27.While these dates will bring the state fair a week later next year than

Woman Suffrage Bill.Madison, Wis., June 7.—Senator La Follette urges the Wisconsin legislature to pass the Glenn bill submitting to a referendum vote in 1914 a bill extending the right of suffrage to women over Governor McGovern's veto.
governor's veto is trivial."In a signed editorial the senator
other states.

Knock Cooke, the former Hempstead,
N. Y., clergyman, said when informed
wife in Hartford, Conn."Now Floretta Whaley and I will not be outcasts in the world, but will be married just as soon as we are officially notified of the divorce."Cooke is now living in a Washing-

taliatory Duty.Washington, June 7.—For several
Maine is chairman, discussed the paper schedule of the Underwood tariff
than 2½ cents a pound is being seriously considered.Because the majority of the sub-
countervailing duty.No decision was reached, but it was
countervailing duty.PITTSBURG BOARD DISMISSES HEETERDeclares Educator Guilty of Immoral Conduct.Pittsburg, June 7.—Superintendent
S. L. Heeter of the Pittsburg public
board of education.After consultation with his attorney, Clarence Burleigh, Mr. Heeter de-
discuss the case.

a shotgun. His body was found in the basement of an unoccupied house. A notched yardstick was used to
pendency are assigned as the cause.WILSON IS DOING

President Wilson is not being pushed.
hurry him.As a pusher he is doing a great deal.
influence. Then he is pushing currency legislation. I doubt whether there ever was any real intention of

Cleaning Washington.

She is taking an active interest in other matters, particularly in "cleaning

gration bill over President Taft's veto.

Dwight's System.

offices," remarked Congressman Boo-
her. "There are fifteen or twenty ap-

over small matters which might indicate future strained relations. The

of Oregon. "He is neither an anarchist nor a crank. On the contrary, he

I Could Hold Your Hand Forever.

exclaimed rapturously.

can Ambassador.London, June 7.—Walter Hines
erdeen, lord lieutenant of Ireland,
and Augustin Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland.Three hundred and fifty Pilgrims,
maker of Europe."SHARE HONORS AT PITTSBURG DINNERViscount Chinda and George W.
Guthrie Guests.Pittsburg, June 7.—The Japanese
da, and the new American ambassador to Japan, George W. Guthrie of
ter. Secretary of State William J.
rived almost as the festivities ended.Ambassador Guthrie, in expressing
with all other nations of the world.""We are a people who keep faith, and we wish to do justice."Viscount Chinda apologized for read-
sional misunderstandings and complications, but I deny the existence or

Take Gun From Spouse.Chicago, June 7.—James J. Cross, a merchant, was shot and probably fatally hurt by his wife in their home.
Mrs. Cross declared the shooting
before the day was up.Cross interfered to take the weapon from her and in a scuffle was shot.
disappeared.

Himself in Back Yard.Minneapolis, June 7.—Overcome
feed his chickens in the morning.Young Johnson was seen to leave

ing Committee.Washington, June 7.—Representa-
stirred up an issue in the banking and currency committee that may provoke trouble before it is settled.At the initial meeting of the com-
resentative Gorbly of Indiana, a Democrat, moved that the resolution be

Hands.Tampico, Mex., June 7.—Three hundred Americans located in Southern Tampaulipas, representing sixty-eight families, have demanded, in a long message to President Wilson, sent through Consul Milton here, to know "once for all" whether they can expect protection from their home government, since they "do not desire to which would embarrass our government without giving due notice beforehand."The message of the Americans was transmitted by wireless through Consul Miller to W. W. Canada, American consul at Vera Cruz, to be forwarded to Washington. It says in part:"Having been left without any protection whatever on the part of both sides in the pending controversy, therefore we can look for protection only from our own country. We must know once for all if we can expect same.""Having been subjected to slights the situation calls for most serious preparations for our personal safety and the defense of our families and our interests. Therefore we have assembled to consider the best way.""We consider protection necessary now, since after death it will be of no utility."The message declares in addition that the petitioners have borne financial losses silently, but that many of vision Superintendent A. V. Brown came to Brainerd at 8 o'clock this morning and after an examination of the depot consuming 20 minutes left for Deerwood. There is one thing promised at the depot which it appears officials have forgotten or neglected. Much was made of a check room to be placed in the depot, but no sign of it has been seen.

Every train finds travelers running up and down the depot looking for the elusive check room. Yesterday C. I. McNair and party tried to find it. Today three ladies from Bemidji said they knew there was a check room in the depot because they had read about it. As matters stand somebody has put the check to the check room improvement.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Soo Line Commences Condemnation Proceedings for Branch Line of the Railway From

IRON HUB TO IRON MT. MINE

North Range Mines Instituting Stripping—Graham-Waite Drilling Contract

The Soo Line will soon build a branch line from a point on the Cuyuna Iron Range line near Iron Hub in a northwesterly, westerly and southwesterly direction to the Iron Mountain mine in the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 33, township 47, range 29. From a point about a mile west of Iron Hub the road will run across sections 28, 21, 20 and 19 in township 47, range 28 and sections 24, 23, 22, 27, 28, 29, 32 and 33 in township 47, range 29. It will run northwesterly and north of Rabbit lake between lake and river, then southwesterly past Manganese and to the Iron Mountain mine.

Owners and others affected by the condemnation proceedings filed include the Reed Investment company, Emma Burgwald, Otto Menzel, F. D. McMillen, Christ Dehning, George Dehning, H. B. Blackwood, C. R. Keyes, H. J. Ernster, M. E. Ryan, Joseph Kotval, L. M. Davis, Sarah Gardner, Henry Schroeder estate, Minnesota Land & Colonization company, Andrew D. Davidson, Wm. D. Edson, Cuyler Adams, Andrew W. Jespersen, Pine Tree Lumber company, Mineral Range Development company, W. J. Schwab, Ruth Mining & Engineering Co., James M. Elder, John R. Osman, Thomas Homer Newman, Trustees of school board district No. 86 with reversion of land to Thomas Homer Newman if not used for school purposes. The Soo Line is reported to have purchased a site for a depot at Manganese.

The Iron Mountain Mining company is pushing the work on its three-compartment shaft so as to be ready to ship ore when the road gets to their property. Good headway is being made under the personal direction of the president, J. J. Stone, and manganese ore of a high grade is reported to have been found in large quantities.

Two and probably three north range shipping mines near Ironton and Crosby may soon engage in stripping propositions. The Thompson mine of the Inland Steel company has let a contract to strip a portion of its property and a washing plant will also be installed. Shipments are being made from the stockpile. At the Armour No. 2 mine, near the Thompson, it is reported that 25 underground miners were laid off and that work on the stripping proposition is soon to commence. Messrs. THREE SHETLAND PONIES KILLED

Tamarack, Minn., June 7—Three Shetland ponies belonging to Marcus Nelson were struck by lightning when standing near a barb wire fence. One horse was instantly killed and the other two died the day following.

The week. It is also rumored that the Armour No. 1 may engage in stripping.

Producing mines of the north range are the Kennedy of Cuyuna, the Thompson, Armour No. 2, Armour No. 1 and the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine at and in the vicinity of Crosby and Ironton. The Barrows mine of the Virginia Ore Mining company on the south range near Brainerd has out a stockpile. Water has bothered the mine and pumping facilities have been increased. Additional sidetracks to the mine at Barrows have recently been completed by the Northern Pacific railway.

The new mines expected to enter the shipping lists for the first time this season are the Adams mine at Oreland where Contractor Buzzo, of Ely, has charge of the work of sinking and drifting; the Cuyuna-Duluth at Ironton which has its shaft down 231 feet and a station cut at the 200 foot level and a drift to the ore now being made. Above ground the new stack has been raised on the power house. Hoisting machinery will soon be installed. The Pennington pit mine of the Todd Stambaugh company will soon be ready to ship. No water has been encountered by the two steam shovels which are removing an overburden about fifty feet in depth. The Iron Mountain mine has been referred to. The hydraulic stripping proposition of the Pittsburgh Steel Ore Co. at Little Rabbit lake is being operated continuously by electrically driven pumps and sand suckers.

A very large ore body is reported to have been found by Patrick Hammel of Duluth, in the northwest quarter of section 27, township 47, range 29 with the ore running 60 per cent and better.

Officials of the Pickands-Mather company of Cleveland, Ohio, one of the first companies to operate on the range, having put down a shaft on the south range which was later abandoned for a time on account of water, visited the range in company with Carl Zapffe, of Brainerd, this week. It is hoped that the visit of the Pickands-Mather people means the early resumption of development work.

The town of Iron Mountain has been platted in the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 33, township 47, range 29 by James H. Miller of Manganese, the survey-

LITTLE FALLS NEWS ITEMS

Special to Dispatch:

Little Falls, Minn., June 7—A meeting of the Morrison County Agricultural Cooperative association was held this evening and plans discussed for the purchase of fair grounds and the erection of buildings. It is planned to spend $2,500 on a fair this fall, exclusive of the cost of grounds.

Residents of the third ward of this city threatened to cut themselves off from Little Falls and organize a separate city. A meeting has been held and steps have been taken toward a separation. The third ward lies west of the Mississippi and contains the saw mill and most of the factory interests. The claim is made that the ward does not receive improvements in proportion to the taxes paid. If the movement is successful the eastern part of the city will petition the Northern Pacific railway company for a new depot as the present depot is in the Third ward.

The Little Falls paid team will meet a team of local players Sunday. The salaried team under the management of Riqueway, former coach of Luther college and professional ball player, reported today. Most of the players are college men.

Paul Brodtkorb was found guilty today of signing over his time due from the N. P. and then cashing the check himself. He was committed to the county jail for 30 days.

Lord secretary, has platted "Ironton Park" in part of the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 14, township 46, range 29, being ten blocks and situated to the southeast of Julesburg and south of Ironton. C. T. Watson surveyed the subdivision.

Daniel Waite, of Crosby, has entered into a contract with William Graham, of Brainerd, to drill the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the south 30 acres of the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 11, township 44, range 31 and if the exploration work shows an ore body of 75,000 tons assaying 40 per cent or better, Graham is to give Waite an undivided half interest in the land. The property is situated near Buffalo creek and east of the Barrows mine.

Engineer F. A. Glass, of Brainerd, has urged the board of county commissioners to start the work of establishing section corners and placing permanent monuments. The various town boards will be asked to cooperate with the county.

The county commissioners of Crow Wing county have received from C. D. Peacock, of Brainerd, a proposal for a mining lease on the poor farm property in section 33, township 45, range 30. He offered 20 cents a ton with a minimum of 5,000 tons the first year, 10,000 tons the second year and 20,000 tons annually thereafter. A resolution was adopted authorizing the auditor to advertise for bids on such a lease.

ington Arms Company Tried Out by Porsch and BrittonThe recent trials made by A. H.
Porsch and Fred Britton with the new Remington Arms Company's negative angle sight have proven quite satisfactory. Using a target two feet wide and three feet high with a six inch bulls eye each of these men out of eighty shots fired by each at the several ranges for which the gun is intended, scored according to the principles of the sight eighty hits each which had the target been a deer would have scored a kill in each instance. Groups of five shots were made and in several instances the five shots were within a space that could have been covered with a twenty-five cent piece.When the fact that the conditions under which these men made their trials were most aggravating, is considered, there being a strong wind of varying velocity blowing across the line of fire, the results obtained are admittedly most remarkable. Plenty of time was taken of course with the firing of each shot and this fact must be considered also, for rifle shooting at a target for record is no slap dash affair and requires the application of the scientific principles of rifle firing.However these men have proven to their satisfaction that the negative angle sight is a success if used as it is intended to be used and the aim taken at the same part of the target no matter what the distance. It is a good sight for the man who shoots a rifle only occasionally and who is therefore rather unfamiliar with the judging of distances and the adjusting of sights to the distance estimated. Being a peep sight necessitates of course more or less practice with the gun to become familiar with this style of sight in order to find the target readily. Practice with a rifle on a fixed target should though, be indulged in by all hunters before going into the woods in order to familialize themselves with the gun they expect to use and if more target practice was indulged in by hunters before going to the woods there would be a larger percentage of kills made with a lower percentage of accidents.
The sight has not yet been placed on the market.AN INNOVATION*Particular Attention to be Paid the but he was easy for the East Brainerd were the home run swat of R. Torkelson, the 16 year old shortstop and a lent, considering the miserable grounds, only two errors being made, both of which were excusable. Eb-finger, the star twirler of the Athletics, let Fort Ripley down with 6 hits, striking out 13.On a previous Sunday the Athletics defeated the Northsides by a score of 13 to 1. This team was substituted for the Speedwells who had a game scheduled with the Athletics but failed to appear without notifying the manager of the East Brainerd team, which game is also claimed 9 to 0.The Athletics have not lost a game dates. They would like to hear from a couple of fast teams in the players are coming to Brainerd to wipe the locals off the earth.And there is some cause for alarm.

The Minneapolis Journal hands Cy the following big bunch of compliments:"Cy Olson, the well known Minneapolis baseball manager, has been chosen leader of the St. Cloud team and he has signed up some of the classiest tossers in Minneapolis. The club opened its season during the week and when the players play a game or two the nine will be hard to beat. The team should be one of the strongest in northwest ball circles.""Alvin Dretchko has been engaged as pitcher and Sammie Kinkle will catch. On first base Chest Holstrom will be found, and Carlisle, Art Anderson, Claude Lamb, Harry Bowman are some of the other Minneapolis boys who will be found on the lineup. Besides these players Kuhne and Lacher of St. Cloud will play and all told the team will be one of the best in the state.""Olson has managed many Minneapolis teams and managed the St.
Cloud team a few years ago. He also piloted the Sauk Rapids team for a season."The St. Clouds are a paid team and according to the above article there is a preponderance of Minneapolis players and the two St. Cloud men loom up like pines on a scraggly mountain side flanked up against a mill city background.No, Brainerd is not kicking. But it will have to get an eternal hump on itself if it expects to win out against such a combination of aggressive players. There must be no errors tomorrow. Every Brainerd man must play as though his life, liberty and future happiness and salary and the approval of the fans depended on beating St. Cloud. It means glory, presumably the big end of the percentage to beat this Cy Olson and his band who effaced Little Falls in two heart breaking games, each time grudgingly allowing them 1 score to their 7-11.Brainerd's lineup, as announced by Manager Considine, will be:Cook, pitcher; Bud Roderick, catcher; Kalland, first base; Larson, second base; Erickson, shortstop; Templeton, third base; Ed. Rogers, right field; Richard Bush, center field; Ira Roderick, left field; Al Victor, left field.CONNIE MACK'S PITCHERS*Has Team in First Position and is near the top for another month I'll be satisfied with our chances. I'm not expecting any runaway race and we might drop out of first place before the 30 days are up, but we have to find out about our pitchers," said Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics.Though he has his team in first place Connie is experimenting in one of the most important departments —the twirling. He has made no attempt to work his men in regular order and that's one reason he often uses two or three pitchers in a game when the man who started seems to have it well in hand.In Pennock, Wycoff, Bush, Brown and Houck he has five promising youngsters. Of the veterans Combs is on the hospital list, and there's no telling when he will be right again.

Bender is big winner, but he isn't the Eddie Plank is in topnotch form.Guaranteed Eczema RemedyThe constant itching, burning,

Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint

is Economical
The Paint that Lasts
THIS illustration will give a fair idea of the difference there is in prepared paints. That kind whose price is low per gallon will "cover" a given area indifferently well, or "cover" only part of the work you have to do.

On the other hand, Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint, because of its covering quality; because of its inherent goodness; because it is made right, will "cover" the entire surface to be painted and do it to your entire satisfaction.

Its price per gallon may be a trifle more, but when you measure it against the job, and against the time it will last when compared with inferior kinds, it is many dollars cheaper in the end.

It is merely a question of whether you want to buy paint whose only recommendation is that it is cheap, or whether you want to buy Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint "made up to a standard, not down to a price."
